On call works for me and 2:00 sounds good if I am needed. I'll inform the Superior Court ADA of my availability. I can be reached at the lab (413-545-2607) or on my cell [REDACTED], though my cell may be better since I could be in/on route to Superior Court. Thanks.

Hi Sonja,

The case is still scheduled for tomorrow. I think it would be better to have you on call. Once we report ready for trial and that you are available and are on call, I think the defendant may submit a plea. What is the best phone number to reach you at tomorrow? If the trial does go forward, I can inform the court that you will be present at 2:00pm. That should give you enough time if you have to testify in the Superior Court case in the morning. How does that work?

I have copied ADA Pat Driscoll on this email. Depending on my schedule, he may be the ADA prosecuting the matter tomorrow.

If you have any questions, my cell phone is [REDACTED]

Hi Carolyn-

Just curious if the [REDACTED] case scheduled for tomorrow is still looking like it will go to trial? If so, do you want me there early or would you rather have me on call? I don't have anything else scheduled for tomorrow, but there is a Superior case in Springfield that is floating in the air and would like to know what to tell the ADA in case it gets picked for today (i.e. I definitely need to get on the stand today or tomorrow before [REDACTED]) or tomorrow (i.e. I'm not available until Thursday morning). Although I'm suppose to give preference to Superior Court, you and Caleb have been extremely flexible scheduling (and re-scheduling) your case around my other cases, so I'm trying to give you as much priority as I can. Thanks.

Hi Carolyn-

I'm not sure if you are still the ADA working on the [REDACTED] case, but I have a question or two about it. First, has there been any changes in the case (plea, stipulation, etc.) that affect me? If not, does it look like you will need me on the 11th, or is it possible you would need me the 12th? I'm asking as I just received notice of a case in New Bedford also scheduled for the 11th and told the ADA there (Caleb Weiner) that I would get in touch with you to find out what is going on. If, perchance, both cases are still on, would it be possible to take me out of order (either first or last) so I could testify in New Bedford as well? If not, I understand and will let ADA Weiner know of my availability (or lack thereof). Thanks.

Hi Sonja - so we are going to move this case in the next few days, and I wanted to see if I might get an updated schedule from you.

I have cc'd ADA Carolyn Morissette, so that she will have your contact information - Carolyn will be trying this case, as I am being transferred to another court.

Thanks again for your help,

Caleb

Hi Caleb-

I still haven't heard anything from ADA Pascale regarding the motion to suppress, and in the meantime I received a second summons for Springfield on 5/17/11 from ADA Pascale. In the second case, the defendant waived his motion to suppress and the ADA thinks it could very well go to trial. With this said, it may be best to try and move the [REDACTED] date if possible. Here's my schedule for the rest of May as well as June so far (depending on when you can get the date changed, I may have already received a summons for your new date, so if it will be a while before you can get it moved, you may want to ask me for an updated schedule). I apologize for the inconvenience. Thanks.
